

WE ARE LOOKING FOR GOVERNANCE AND COMMUNICATION COMMUNITY OUTREACH AND AWARENESS INTERN

Job Purpose:

HONEYGUIDE governance and communication department is offering an intern position as a Governance and Communication Community Outreach and Awareness Intern in our Arusha office. This internship will run for 3 months, and we are looking for someone to start as soon as possible. This is an exciting opportunity for candidates who want to learn about community awareness program in wildlife setting environment and are creative, have passion with conservation governance, love community's communications and awareness raising, field life experience, are pro-active, flexible and can multi-task and manage their own working time while being a team player.

About the Project

HONEYGUIDE works with dynamic communities who manages their local protected areas. Good governance and communication are essential for natural resource management. Visit our website page to learn about this program: Governance and Management

Essential Functions will be:

The overall role is to assist the WMA to develop communication strategies, plans, and implement these plans. This will include some development of the required tools for communications such as posters, films, and other communication materials and tools.

Major duties and responsibilities

- Design information, education and communication materials related to good governance, management, and conservation of natural resources.
- Participate in the implementation of community outreach and awareness raising activities of good governance and natural resource management.
- Assist in drafting or editing of governance and communication program awareness materials such as documentaries and drama groups contents and messages
- Assist in the preparation of any awareness raising events during his/ her term
- Translate awareness materials such as scripts and drama group messages into simple and understandable language

- Engaging with grassroots communities to increase program awareness, engagement and disseminate information to disseminate conservational governance related issues to our partner communities.

About you: We are looking for someone who has the following profile:

Qualifications & competencies

- Recent graduate holding a bachelor's degree in communication, community mobilization, fine and performing art or any other related field
- Candidates holding BSc degree in natural resource related course may be considered if they have experience in communication.
- Equivalent work experience in Communications or community engagement in behavior change
- A creative mindset, able to communicate clearly in written and visual formats.
- A team player, able to work collaboratively and contribute to a positive work environment
- Excellent command of written and spoken English and Swahili, any other local language such as Maasai or Sukuma is an asset
- Applicants must possess the ability to research our members' initiatives through different channels and create well-written and timely drama scripts and success stories to showcase their efforts.
- General IT literacy plus experience in Word, Publisher or Excel Spreadsheet

How to Apply: Interested candidates are invited to submit a cover letter and resume/CV to intern@honeyguide.org by Tuesday, 23rd July 2024. You must put in the subject line "Governance and Communication Community Outreach and Awareness Intern". Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted for an interview.

Honeyguide Foundations is an equal-opportunity employer and is committed to diversity in the workplace. We encourage applications from all qualified individuals, including those with diverse backgrounds and those with disabilities.

Join our dynamic team and make a meaningful impact on the lives of individuals and communities. Together, we can create positive change and build a more inclusive and resilient society.